JOHNSTON AND STRACHAN WILL COME TO HONOLULU

bring out several stars. Miss Janet Storrs, a star in tennis in the East, will come here, and Mrs. Balin of New York is another player who is expected to participate in the tourney. This will give Honolulu perhaps the best tennis feature in the feminine field that has been staged here.

There is a growing interest in ladies' tennis, and although Miss Vera Beyfuss has left for the mainland, Honolulu still has a number of stars to introduce to the tennis enthusiasts. It is planned to hold a mixed doubles event, and in this case it will be an other East vs. West match as it is expected that the two feminine visitors will be paired with Church and Throckmorton.

This would leave two of the femin ine players of Hawaii to play with Johnston and Strachan. From the play in the last tournament Maile Vicars is certain to be the first selection, as she won her way to the finals in her first Honolulu match. Kathryn Williams is easily the next best player in Honoluly, that is, taking the past matches as a criterion, and is expected to be one of the entrees in the mixed doubles. Miss Williams is certain to improve her game, and with more practise should prove to be bright star.

Other players who will perhaps pair with the local stars are Pauline Schaefer, Ruth Anderson, Thelma Wicke, Alice Hopper and several more who have been playing good tennis during the past year.

It is expected that there will be 16 entered in the men's singles. Johnston, Church, Throckmorton and Strachan with Eklund, Hoogs, Castle and Lowrey make eight of this number. Then from the class B tournament will be Nowell, Warren, Barnes and Allen Marshall. This would leave four more to be entered. Perhaps Horner of Hilo will come over for the tourney and others are expected from the coast. In case no visitors arrive, perhaps other players from the class B tourney will be selected. Rothschild, Vinson and Silverman have played excellent tennis in the tourney to date. At any rate, February 9 will see the opening of the best tourney ever staged in Hawaii.
